FRIDAY, October 16, 1893.

VIRGINIA & TENNESSEE RAILROAD.
Mail train leaves Bristol, 7:25 P. M.
Arrives in Lynchburg, 3:40 A. M.
Freight train leaves Bristol, 7:45 A. M.
Arrives in Lynchburg, 3:45 A. M.
Mail train leaves Lynchburg, 5 P. M.
Arrives in Bristol, 7:05 A. M.
Distance 254 miles; fare 5 cents per mile.
25 minutes allowed for meals in Bristol.
Train time being 30 minutes slower than
Va. time, the apparent want of connection between the above schedules is explained.

Look Out.—Rev. Robert Ayers offers $50 for a Bay Horse stolen, or for the thief.

The Abingdon Virginian says Wm. A. Stuart, Esq., of Salisbury, has purchased the splendid farm and mills of Col. A. L. Hendricks, of Russell Co., paying $100,000 for it. This is one of the finest estates in Southwestern Virginia.

Military Goods.—Attention is invited to Mrs. Betty Galloway's card. She is a lady of experience in the military line, and we understand her stock is very nice.

See the new advertisement of E. B. McClannahan for rare and excellent grape vines.

King's College.—We are glad to announce the upward and onward tendency of this institution. The board of curators is making rapid progress in the erection of their new brick building to be used as a chapel and for study rooms.

The Donation Party given to Rev. O. T. Carroll and lady, the night of the 8th, was a success, and testifies again to the high estimation in which he is held by the people of his flock.

The Concert at the Presbyterian Church, on the evening of the 6th and 7th insts., was, we have been informed, a good thing. Prof. Frank, of Lynchburg, and Miss Winston, of Louisa Co., Va., were very highly complimented for their artistic merit, and the ladies of our own town were very successful in winning the applause of all who attended.

The Literary Postman deserves a notice at our hands. It is equally as beautiful as the New York Ledger and far exceeds it in worth. Price $3.00; published by A. S. Crutchenfield, Richmond, Va.

The Southern Opinion, Richmond, Va., is devoted to the memory of those great and good characteristics developed in the late Confederate cause, and is a good thing. Price $3.00 per annum. H. Rives & Pollard, editors.

Peter's Parlor Companion, the Glee Trios for the Flute, Violin and Piano, each at $3.00 per annum, and the U. S. Musical Review, at $2.00, are again on our table. They are valuable periodicals and are handsomely gotten up. Address at this office.

Athens House.—Our friend, Mr. G. B. Long, late of the Virginia House, and more recently of the Nichols House, in this place, is now connected with the Athens House, Knoxville, Tenn. We are glad to learn from him of the continued prosperity of that popular hotel. Mr. Long is a gentleman of experience in hotel keeping, and will be greeted, wherever found, by many warm friends from Virginia.

Messrs. Dunn & Co. have shown their good taste by removing their stock of goods to the new and elegantly furnished store adjoining the office of the Bristol News. These gentlemen, so largely known and popular in this country, are doing a good business with their new and elegant stock of Fall and Winter Goods. Look out for their red pillars. See their new advertisement.

Interested on Tennessee Bonds.—Mr. Plunkett, the Assistant Comptroller of the State at Nashville, received a telegram Wednesday morning from Comptroller Blackburn, from New York, saying that every arrangement has been perfected for the paying of the July interest and instructing him to pay out on all the coupons held in the State.—He accordingly commenced paying. The Third National Bank of Nashville drew $8,000 interest on the bonds held by it. Something about $20,000 was paid out yesterday.

A Present.—The Rev. E. H. Ingles, Rector of St. John's and St. Paul's churches, at Big Lick and Salem, Va., has been presented by his parishioners with a fine saddle horse. Well deserved and handsomely done.

Improved.—The Knoxville Press & Herald comes to us this week much enlarged and improved. This journal is doing good service politically and we are pleased to note this sign of its prosperity. It is now a large and handsome journal.

Louisville Journal.—The daily Journal, containing forty columns of matter, is mailed to subscribers at $10 per year. The weekly at $2.

Mantua-Making and Millinery.—Misses Peerman and Luccado, late of Lynchburg, have opened their splendid stock of New Bonnets and Hats, for the winter season, at the Virginia House. We have been a former patron of Miss Peerman in the city of Lynchburg and can speak well of her work. Their card was crowded out of our last issue.

The Circus.—Robinson's Circus and Menagerie, was not up to public expectation. The number of animals is small, and, as usual, short of the number and variety advertised. The circus was pretty good with some exceptions, but the list of feats was a short one. Mr. Kelly certainly must be regarded as a most extraordinary leaper, and some of the riding was good. The K. Klux was the best part of the performance. It was really a success and well worth seeing. The tight rope performance was a failure, and the Concert, for which an extra fee was required, was positively a swindle. There were probably 3,000 persons here on Tuesday to witness the exhibition.

Charter Granted.—The Secretary of the Commonwealth has received a copy of the charter of incorporation granted by the Circuit Court of Washington county to the Holston Salt and Plaster Company, for the manufacture of salt, gypsum and other minerals in the counties of Washington and Smyth, and conducting agricultural, mechanical and mercantile operations in connection therewith—capital stock not less than $100,000, nor more than $2,000,000; shares $100 each. Saltville will be the principal office of the company. The officers are: Wyndham Robinson, Abingdon, Va., President, and W. H. Stuart, Saltville, Dr. E. M. Campbell, Adingdon, George W. Palmer, Saltville, Va., William Y. C. White, Abingdon, Directors.—Marion Star.

Our Cemetery. we are pleased to see, has been at last laid off with good taste and judgment by that excellent Civil Engineer, Mr. T. D. Walthall, of our town. So many graves have been located without regard to any plan that it was difficult to bring order out of chaos. But the vacant ground has been laid off into convenient sized burial lots, which will be sold as they may be needed, and a carriage way located so as to give access to all the uncaptured ground, and curved with especial reference to good taste. A more beautiful site for a cemetery we have never seen, and it is worth the while of our always busy people to pause in their avocations long enough to beautify this city of our loved ones gone before us.

Escaped.—Miss Acres, the mother of the infant recently murdered near Union, Tenn., made her escape from the guard on Thursday night, of last week. The guard came down stairs to supper, and she there the opportunity to take in company with her brother. On Friday morning the guard were suspicious of the silence within, and found they had guarded an empty room all night. Our former report that Kwing was present, as well as Seals, at the birth of the infant, is not true we are informed, and there are many who believe that he is entirely innocent of the horrible crime charged.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Carroll's thanks are extended to the good people of Bristol for the very handsome donation party given them on last Thursday night. The interest thus manifested in their daughter as well as encouraging, and enjoyed it very much indeed. May the blessing of Almighty God ever attend you and bring us to feast together in heaven.

MARRIED.
At the residence of the bride's father, near Bristol, Tenn., on the 15th inst., by the Rev. John R. King, Mr. RALPH STOKES to Miss SALLIE McGUIRE.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I will give fifty dollars for the apprehension of the thief or thieves who stole from my stable at Piney, Campbell county, Tenn., said horse (a black Bay, 16 hands high, 7 years old, both hind feet white up to his pastern joints, a star in his forehead. He was stolen on Monday night, the 15th inst., by one William Sattler. Sattler is a small man, has light hair and blue eyes, had on when he stole a white hat, his clothing was of Kentucky jeans. He (Sattler) was raised near Hooters Creek Camp Ground, Spotsylvania county, Tenn. He is a son of Percy Sattler. I will give the above reward for the thief, or the apprehension of the horse so I may get him. My address is Piney, Tenn. H. ROBERT AYERS.

Oct. 16, 1893—4t

REMOVED!!
I. B. DUNN & CO.
announce to the public that they have removed to their new store, one door East of the old stand, and next door to Messrs. Fowler & Globey.

We are opening New Goods cheaper than ever offered by us, at the RED FRONT and RED FLAG.

STOLEN! BRING THEM BACK!!
WE KNOW YOU!!!
Taken from our store on the night of the 15th inst., four good horses. We will give $25 for the recovery of the entire lot, or proof that will lead to their recovery.

I. B. DUNN & CO.
Oct. 16, 1893—4t

Notice.
An old established Grocery and Commission house in the city of Petersburg, doing a GOOD BUSINESS, will take a partner who can bring a capital of a few hundred dollars, and influence along the Va. and Tenn. and East Tenn. & Va. Railroads with a view to extending its trade in that direction, and it would be immaterial whether such partner resided in this city or at a suitable point for influence on the above mentioned Railroads. The best of references given and the same required.

Address—PETERSBURG P. O.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
A new publication, a new edition of Dr. Carter's celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or seminal weakness, involuntary Seminal Losses, Protrusion, Mental and Physical Impairment, Impediments to Marriage, etc., also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, can cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
GRAPE VINES.
The following varieties of native grapes are listed to be superior to all others for general cultivation and in the best manner in the order of their excellence.

MILLINERY & MANTUA-MAKING.
Misses Peerman and Luccado have associated themselves together for the purpose of carrying on the Millinery and Mantua-Making business. They are now opening a handsome and fashionable stock of Fall and Winter Goods, Hats, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, etc., which have been selected with great care.

By long experience and by giving strict attention to business they hope to meet the share of the public patronage. They intend to sell goods as low as any house. Particular attention paid to cutting and making dresses.

MILLINERY GOODS.
Mrs. Bettie Galloway is now receiving her fall and winter goods for 1893 embracing such articles as are usually found in her line. She returns her thanks for former patronage and begs a continuance of the same. She will open her stock on Friday, Oct. 23, 1893, consisting of bonnets, hats and patterns, to which she invites the attention of the ladies and public generally.

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.
The partnership heretofore existing under the style and firm of LYON & JONES, at Stock Creek, Scott county, Va., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All parties indebted to the said firm will come forward and settle at once with H. Lyon. All persons buying or selling on account of this firm will be held responsible to the said H. Lyon.
